To Whom it may concern,

I am writing this letter on behalf of Brent McCoy, a very talented artist who I have had the pleasure to hire on a handful of occasions. You will find that Brent is extremely professional and versatile. I have hired him to perform in China several times now and as usual he is always a big hit.

Brent's skills, talent and character are unmatched. His show is solid and his work ethics are excellent. I highly suggest you use him, he would be an asset to any venue.

If you have any further questions I would be happy to answer them.

Sincerely,

Brenn Swanson
