Brent McCoy
Letter of Recommendation

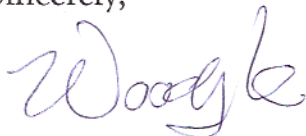

To whom it may concern:

It is impossible to sit through a Brent McCoy performance without laughing... a lot. His slapstick routines are witty, precise and, most important, really funny. His circus skills are a cut above, but the rudiments of his art are his ability to play with his audience. It's not so much what he does, but rather who he is that creates empathy and pathos with the crowd.

The result of Brent's efforts are always the same - audiences of all ages being wowed by his physical dexterity and laughing at his spot on humor, often long after the show is over. He succeeds splendidly in turning every performance into an unforgettable occasion where anything joyous seems possible.

Brent McCoy is a great fit for any event; the quintessence of professionalism and originality and a sure-fire hit with patrons and presenters alike. It is my pleasure to recommend Brent to anyone seeking a world class and wildly entertaining comic performer. He is one of the most skilled and lovable variety entertainers I've had the pleasure to work with. Brent gives 110% on stage and off, always eager to make the presenter's job a lot easier. If you get a chance to work with Brent McCoy, I highly recommend that you do!

Sincerely,
